

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Four Product Launches to set the stage for Almo Premium Appliances at Architectural Digest Design Show

Distributor to bring more appliance innovation through key brands at NYC show

Philadelphia, PA – March 14, 2016: Almo Premium Appliances will play a major role in launching four new products this week at the 2016 Architectural Digest Design Show. The distribution leader will be introducing Tecogas SUPERIORE, an iconic Italian brand new to the U.S, in addition to new products from Liebherr Appliances, Sharp Home, and Faber Hoods in Booth #271 from March 17-20.

Almo Premium will be hosting a media preview from 9:00 – 11:00 am on March 17th before the show opens. Brands and products on display at the Architectural Digest Design Show are as follows:

Tecogas SUPERIORE

Tecogas presents their product line specifically designed for the North American market: SUPERIORE, a collection of ranges, hoods, and accessories. Exquisitely designed, SUPERIORE provides the cooking function for real-life sensibility to truly enjoy time in the kitchen. They will be presenting both their NEXT (stainless) and DECO (rich choice of colors with and brass, gold or chrome accents) lines. Models on the show floor will include:

- NEXT Line 48" TriFuel™ - first of its kind range with four induction zones, two gas burners, a gas oven and electric griddle, featuring the Panorama "widescreen" window
- NEXT Line 30" range with Panorama "widescreen" window for smaller space applications, shown with the 30" Pro Stainless Steel Hood
- NEXT 48" hood with black glass and stainless body enhanced by retro-style analog control
- DECO Line 36" ranges in Classic Matte Red and Classic Matte Brown with a dual color cream fascia and Art Deco finishing details
- DECO Line Chimney-style hood in Classic Matte Red and Barrel-style hood in Classic Matte Brown both matched with metal finishes

Liebherr Appliances

Refrigeration leader Liebherr will highlight their new, award-winning, UPR 503 undercounter pull-out fridge. Created with both the designer and consumer in mind, the fridge can be adjusted in height and depth to match the countertop, and features fully extendable, self-retracting drawers, for premium functionality and ease-of-use. Also on display by Liebherr:

- New HWg 1803 in-wall wine storage cabinets
- Signature BioFresh technology.

Sharp Home

Sharp will unveil the newest addition to their home appliance product line, the SuperSteam+™ Combination Steam and Convection Oven. The only oven to grill purely with Superheated steam, the Supersteam+ Combination Steam and Convection Oven can grill foods with steam that's 485 Degrees F, so foods come out brown and crispy on the outside, tender and juicy on the inside, and with all the benefits of cooking with steam. Also on display is Sharp's Microwave Drawer, which pairs elegantly with the SuperSteam+ Oven.

Faber Hoods

Faber Hoods will debut the Pareo periscoping ceiling hood to the American market at the Arch Digest Design Show. Using a spiraling extending and retracting motion, the Pareo creates a distinctive focal point in the kitchen. Additional Faber products in the booth will include:

- New Cocktail hood
- New Inca Lux hood
- New Classica Plus hood
- New Levante hood
- Upgraded Inca HC model

Capital

Capital Cooking, a mainstay brand in superior cooking, will feature the following appliances in the booth:

- 48" Connoisseurian dual fuel range with open burner technology – COB484G2
- 36" Culinarian Range with open burner technology - CGSR362B2
- 48" Pro Hood – PSVH48HL
