MEDIA ALERT

Sharp® to Showcase Black Stainless Steel Microwave Drawer™ and SuperSteam+™ Combination Steam and Convection Oven Together for the First Time at the Architectural Digest Design Show 2017

WHAT: At this year's Architectural Digest Design Show, Sharp will showcase its Black Stainless Steel Microwave Drawer and SuperSteam+ Combination Steam and Convection Oven together at Booth 271.

Sharp's Black Stainless Steel Microwave Drawer is the first and only microwave drawer available in black stainless steel in the United States. This model joins the company's complete line of microwave drawers, including two variations of stainless steel, all built to maximize design versatility. The Black Stainless Steel Microwave Drawer Oven boasts a low-profile design featuring clean sightlines and hidden control panel. The rich black, elegant finish is an absolute show-stopper for your dream kitchen.

The SuperSteam+ Combination Steam and Convection Oven is a premium built-in unit and the only oven that can grill, roast and sauté using purely superheated steam at browning temperatures. The modern, premium stainless design makes the SuperSteam+ the perfect showpiece.

- Black Stainless Steel Microwave Drawer (SMD2470AH) – MSRP: $1,699.99
- SuperSteam+™ Combination Steam and Convection Oven (SSC3088AS) – MSRP: $3,299.99
