

HUNTER DOUGLAS ANNOUNCES NEW YORK CITY LAUNCH OF DESIGN TRADE PROGRAM

Leading Manufacturer in Window Coverings Expands Program to New York City for its Loyal Group of Design Trade

(PEARL RIVER, NY – March 21, 2019) Hunter Douglas, the world’s leading manufacturer of custom window treatments, announced today the launch of its Design Trade Program in New York City. As the company continues its top-of-the-line work with designers, architects and decorators, they are pleased to share this sophisticated program that will add ease to trade members’ projects for members of the New York City design community.

The program helps designers, architects and decorators specify the perfect Hunter Douglas product for any client’s home. Those who participate will enjoy complimentary swatches of Hunter Douglas fabrics, exclusive trade pricing on all orders, a dedicated Trade Program Concierge service, access to a network of program-certified Hunter Douglas dealers and informative seminars and events throughout the year. All information will be available on a dedicated Designer Online Portal, a user-friendly platform exclusively available to those in the Design Trade Program.

Hunter Douglas Design Trade Program is also currently available in Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Connecticut, Dallas Metro, Las Vegas, Long Island, Los Angeles, Metro Philadelphia, North and Central New Jersey, Orange County, CA, Phoenix, Rhode Island, San Diego, San Francisco, San Jose South Bay, Washington, DC, with plans to continue expanding to additional cities nationwide over the next few months.
